The AFCEA Hampton Roads Intelligence Committee
the ODU Department of Political Science and Geography and the ODU Graduate Program on International Studies (GPIS) invite you to a presentation by

Dr. Robert Pringle
on Russian Intelligence Operations

Wednesday, March 25, 2020, 4:30pm
Burgess Room – 9th Floor, Batten Arts and Letters (BAL) Bldg. - Hampton Blvd and W. 45th Ave.

Dr. Pringle will provide his insights on the nature of Russian espionage and intelligence operations against the United States with a historical perspective that will shed light on what to expect in the future.

Dr. Pringle is a veteran of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), U.S. Army Military Intelligence, and a former U.S. Foreign Service Officer in the Department of State. During his time with the State Department and CIA he focused on the intelligence services of the Soviet Union and Russia. He was awarded the Central Intelligence Medal in 1998. Dr. Pringle has also taught intelligence studies and history at the University of Kentucky, the Virginia Military Institute, and Christopher Newport University. He authored the Historical Dictionary of Russian and Soviet Intelligence (2015), was a contributor to the Oxford Handbook of National Security Intelligence and has authored more than a dozen articles and reviews in the Journal of Intelligence and Counterintelligence and other publications. Dr. Pringle holds a PhD from the University of Virginia in Russian History.

This event is open at no cost for members of AFCEA and ODU students and faculty. Hors d’oeuvres and a cash bar will follow the presentation.

RSVP is required. Please rsvp to IntelComm@hamptonroads.afceachapters.org and indicate your affiliation, AFCEA Member or ODU/Student or Faculty.
